		SG Listing Policy As you are aware, SG consider a miniature sheet as a single unit and do not list its component stamps. However, they regard a booklet pane as a composition of stamps and list its various components. An increasing number of issues now appear both as miniature sheets & PSB panes. These include inter alia Star Wars, James Bond, End of WWII, Queen etc. They can be collected by purchasing and breaking up a second M/S without going to the expense of purchasing a PSB. The stamps from each source are identical and individual copies cannot be distinguished! Smilers / commemorative sheets are treated in the same vein as miniature sheets, viz as a single unit, and individual stamps therefrom are not given separate catalogue status. They are also sold at a premium which is another SG "black mark" against them. However, they frequently provide the only complete set of self adhesives for the issue, and should not be disregarded because of SG's listing policies. They are, of course, listed by Michel. These sheets do contain duplication within and frequently of those stamps issued in commem/defin retail booklets.

GB	1.7.20 1.9.20	Tariff Increases A new World Zone 3 was created, consisting of the USA only. All international letter rates increased. The Tariff Zones are: UK Europe World Zone 1 - Canada, Mexico, Sth America, Africa, Middle East, Asia, India, Japan, Indonesia, PNG World Zone 2 - Australia, NZ, Pacifics World Zone 3 - America (including Alaska) From a stamp collecting viewpoint, the important thing to note is that no new stamps were issued for the new tariffs with increases to be met by existing make-up values. Increases ranged from 3p to £1.03 (250gms LL to Aust). I am sure new values will be produced again in 2021 with March tariff changes. In the interim, it is likely we will see more dated reprints for the sheet stamps make-up values. There were no changes to domestic (UK) rates.
