Aruba, Bonaire, Curacao, Saba, St Eustatius and St Maarten are a group of Dutch colonial Caribbean islands informally referred to as the Dutch Antilles.

Initially, all the islands used stamps inscribed "Curacao".

In 1948 the islands group was renamed Netherlands Antilles.

In 1986, Aruba seceded from the Netherlands Antilles and became an autonomous State within the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

The Netherlands Antilles was dissolved in 2010 with the constituent islands remaining part of the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

Each island has its own particular legal status within the Kingdom.

Curacao became an autonomous State within the Kingdom and began issuing its own stamps in 2010.

Stamps from colonies and dependencies of the Netherlands can be found in our World - Foreign Price List or our South America Section

There is a separate (South America) list for ARUBA.

There is a separate (South America) list for SURINAM.

					Greetings Stamps for Cruise Ships [Birds] (sa)

					These are P-stamps sold on cruise ships and meant to be personalised. There are 4 generic sheets each featuring a different bird within the same 2 stamp designs in each sheet. One of the sheets is illustrated above. A personal photo would replace the bird image in the stamp. The 5 pairs of stamps on the right are kiss die cut, whereas those on the left are simply images (vignettes) and are not valid for postal use, although they are denominated and catalogued by Michel as imperforates. Printed albums provide for the four pairs and Michel notes these. However, Michel unusually illustrates only one bird design, as do NVPH and Scott. SG makes no reference to the issue. Interestingly, both Michel & NVPH illustrate different bird designs.
